Subject: Exciting Announcement: CNH Industrial Reman Partners with Ihle Fabrications, LLC!

Dealer Principals, Parts Managers and Service Managers,

We are thrilled to share some exciting news with you. Today, CNH Industrial Reman has signed a formal Supplier Agreement with Ihle Fabrications, LLC., with a target launch date of August 1, 2023, to sell Ihle Fabrications parts. This collaboration opens new opportunities and brings a host of benefits to our valued Case IH and New Holland dealers.

As part of this agreement, Case IH and New Holland dealers will now have exclusive access to over 100 remanufactured and enhanced combine wear parts previously distributed through Ihle Fabrications, LLC. These parts have proven superior quality and will be available for purchase through CNH Industrial Reman via CNH Industrial Depots.

To ensure prompt availability, all parts will be stocked at the CNH Industrial Depots with a target launch date of August 1, 2023, making it convenient for dealers to access these parts. Additionally, we are pleased to inform you that these parts will be eligible for the DSO discount, providing you with even greater value and cost savings.

Remanufactured parts are a great way to offer your customers the long-term livelihood they want for their equipment while positively impacting the environment, saving time, energy, raw material, and money. Bringing Ihle Fabrications' superior quality enhanced combine wear parts into the Reman product offering will increase your dealership's offerings and provide you with a broader range of sustainable options for your customers.

We are confident this collaboration will enable you to serve your customers better and meet their diverse needs. Together, we can ensure that farmers and operators continue to experience the exceptional performance they expect from Case IH and New Holland equipment, delivering the best value to the customer.

We look forward to a successful partnership with Ihle Fabrications and its positive impact to our valued dealers and customers. Stay tuned for more information and updates, on this exciting partnership.

Thank you for your ongoing support, and please feel free to contact our team if you have any questions or require further assistance.
